Sakyadhita International

Sakyadhita means "Daughters of the Buddha." The Sakyadhita International Association of Buddhist Women was founded in 1987 in Bodhgaya, India, with the aim of fostering an environment where Buddhist women worldwide could learn and practice free from discrimination. As the Association continues to gain prominence, its goals and areas of focus have expanded significantly. To address issues of shared interest, Sakyadhita organizes an international conference every two years, hosted in a different country each time.

Sakyadhita Malaysia

The Malaysian national branch of Sakyadhita International Association of Buddhist Women is in the process of being established.

Kuching Buddhist Society

The Kuching Buddhist Society (KBS) was founded in 1971 with the support of numerous lay Buddhists. It emerged as the second Buddhist organization in Sarawak and is one of the largest and oldest Buddhist organizations in Malaysia.

Malaysian Buddhist Kulapati Association

The Malaysian Buddhist Kulapati Association (MBKA) was established in 2012 to promote lay Buddhist self-cultivation and the study of Buddha's teachings and practices as a way of life for self-fulfillment.

Malaysia Buddhist Bhikkhuni Association

The Malaysia Buddhist Bhikkhuni Association (MBBA) was established in 2018 with one of its main aims being to unite the Buddhist nuns in Malaysia.

Buddhist Missionary Society Malaysia

The Buddhist Missionary Society Malaysia (BMSM), established in 1962 by Venerable Dr. K. Sri Dhammananda, is a leading organization promoting Buddhist teachings through publications, spiritual programs, and meditation centers, fostering education and global collaboration in the Buddhist community.

Kuching Dhamma Vijaya Buddhist Centre

The Kuching Dhamma Vijaya Buddhist Centre is a vibrant community hub, providing opportunities for meditation, Dhamma talks, and activities aimed at nurturing mindfulness, compassion, and spiritual growth.

Sarawak Convention Bureau

Business Events Sarawak is a non-profit organization fully supported and funded by the Government of Sarawak. It connects meeting planners with the appropriate networks and resources to successfully plan and organize meetings, incentives, conventions, and exhibitions.

Post-conference Tour

The KBS Buddhist Village is an initiative by the Kuching Buddhist Society based on the vision of creating a Pure Land on Earth. At the centre of the Buddhist Village is Mi-tuo-yen (Amitabha Courtyard) where there is a Triple Gem Hall, Tee-chan Relics Hall, a vegetarian restaurant, and a bereavement and funeral service hall with crematorium and columbarium facilities.
